	Hi everyone,
5	Well, the first week has nearly passed, with no real problems to tell you about so far. It has easy though. So many things are different from what I'm used to. There's the language, for thing. As you know, I've been studying English for many years, but this is like being a begin all over again. It seems as if everyone is speaking a different language from the one I studie school! Still, I'm beginning to get used to hearing English all around me.	ny things are different from what I'm used to. 10	Lectures don't start till next week, so this week has been a time of settling in: finding my warround, meeting people on the same course, joining clubs and societies and so on. There's actually a Palestine Society (which I've joined of course). They have guest speakers and disgroups, organise cultural events and even food evenings, so at least I'll have some connect home. I've joined two other clubs as well.	s scussio
	I hope you're all well. I'll write again soon.
	Love,
	Mahmoud
